 other ills, in the snow of an winter, are made in better from Dr. George E. representative of the Committee for Resettlement. This is the point that is bringing such objection to the treaty in this country.

The Japanese Government announces that she will in a short time, make public plans to the Shantung province, given her at China's expense in the peace settlement. This is the point that is bringing such objection to the treaty in this country.

The war department wants universal military training of all boys of nineteen years old who shall be trained for three months and then held in the reserve forces for call in the event of a war.

Regarding the Shantung agreement of the Peace Treaty Japanese authorities have announced that Japan will remove all troops from the Chinese province, once an agreement is affected and that Japan desires no claim to territory affecting the sovereignty of China.

The attorney General of the United States asserts publicly that all profiteers and monopolists in food stuffs will be arrested out and prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

Diplomatic relations between Argentina and England are in a very delicate state and ministers from each country to the other have been called home. The breach which appears imminent is the result of Argentina's purchase of a German steamship.

$2,500 Premiums For the Big Fair

Eighth Annual Event to be Biggest yet. Nearly Every-thing Grown or Produced in The County in Premium List.

The premium list for Bryan County's Victory Fair and Soldiers Homecoming Celebration to be held September 3, 4, 5 and 6 is off the press and is being mailed broadcast over the county.

The total amount of premiums and prizes which will be given at this, the Eighth Annual Bryan County Fair to be held at the Fair grounds, Durant, Oklahoma is bigger than ever and totals well over $2500.

The premiums are offered for nearly every article grown in this section, there being hand-some premiums in all depart-ments, agriculture, cattle rais-ing, swine, goats, sheep, poul-try, horses, mules and a large number of others. The ladies have not been overlooked either as handsome premiums will be awarded in their depart-ments, including canned goods, cooking, etc.

If you haven't received a copy of the premium list, write the secretary, A. B. Davis, Du-rant, and he will mail you a copy at once. Just drop him a postal, he will do the rest.

Look over the premiums, prepare your exhibits, and then take the exhibit and the whole family to the fair all four days, September, 3, 4, 5 and 6, Fair Grounds, Durant, Oklahoma.

Reduced Freight Rates

Substantial reductions in freight rates in Oklahoma are being promised the people of the state by the Corporation Commission of the state. The general reduction, it is believed, will be from five to ten per cent.
